

Orbit™ Scroll Ring Trackball

Comfort meets control

K72337EU

Overview

All-day comfort and scrolling come together in the Kensington Orbit™ Trackball with Scroll Ring. The Scroll Ring allows you to fly through web pages and documents. And all while delivering comfort and space savings no mouse can match.

Description

Want to improve your productivity, increase cursor control and save desktop space? Look no further than a trackball from Kensington—the world leader in trackball innovation. All Kensington Trackballs can be fully customised with Kensington TrackballWorks™ software to customise the functions of each of the buttons found on Kensington trackballs. The result is a more productive and truly personalized computing experience. Set your preferred functions or keyboard shortcuts for each trackball button or combination of buttons, adjust the pointer speed and acceleration and do so much more. Best of all, by allowing you to personalise your trackball experience, TrackballWorks™ makes your trackball work the way you do.
